THE RECENT BANKERS' CONVENTION.

The following correspondence explains itself:

Sarasburg, Va., April 20th, 1910.
J. T. Burke, esq., chairman, Virginia Bankers' Group No. 3, Alexandria, Va.

My Dear Sir: I cannot refrain from writing you to express my appreciation of the entertainment given by yourself and the bankers of your city. It is not often that I am permitted to get away from the daily grind of routine business. This fact coupled with the desire that I had of personally meeting your force and the other bankers of your city, has made this occasion one of the bright spots in the panorama of my personal experience.

Your environment is such that you could on this occasion bring us to one of the most historical and famous places in Virginia, and permit me to say that you and your associates are artists in the art of entertaining and it seems that the mantle of Virginia hospitality as exhibited by the noble sons of the old commonwealth in ante bellum days has fallen in no slight degree upon the bankers of your city. I know of none more worthy to reflect the ancient custom.

I am at a loss to know how to convey my appreciation in moderation, and sorry that I could not see the programme through. I naturally have regrets that my valley banker friends missed the treat in store for them. I hope that a closer friendship will be the fruitage of this top notch entertainment you have given Virginia Bankers Group No. 3. With much respect I remain yours truly,
J. W. EBERLY.Alexandria, Va., April 22, 1910.
J. W. Eberly, esq., Cashier, Massachusetts National Bank, Strasburg, Virginia.My Dear Sir: Your favor of the 20th instant received. In reply beg to say that the bankers of Alexandria and those assisting in entertaining Group No. 3, Virginia Bankers' Association, are much gratified at the high appreciation of their efforts. Their only regret is that so few members of the group were present. We trust this is only the beginning of many such enjoyable affairs and our next meeting will be largely attended. Yours very truly,
JULIAN T. BURKE,
Chairman Group No. 3, Virginia Bankers' Association.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

There were two cases before the Police Court this morning.

Mr. A. J. Wedderburn has purchased twenty lots from the Virginia Highland Association. The lots are situated on the electric railway a short distance north of this city and near the new concrete station now being erected. Thompson and Apple, real estate dealers, report the sale of the property No. 814, 816 and 818 King street to Mr. Harris F. Wheat.

THE APPROACHING COMET.

Halley's comet is scheduled to make its next public appearance to the naked eye on Sunday morning between 3:24 and 5:22 o'clock, according to Father Hadrick, director of the Georgetown observatory. To see the comet the sky must be dark and clear, but once it has been discovered it can be seen in a brighter sky. It will appear in the east and will be about five degrees above the horizon. The comet will appear in the morning from time to time until May 20.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Joseph Dreifus took place from the residence, 207 Commerce street, this afternoon. Rabbi Stern, of Washington, conducted; the services and the pallbearers were members of the Modern Woodmen of America, of which organization the deceased had been a member.

CONCERT TONIGHT.

All arrangements have been made for concert to be given tonight in the Young People's Building of the M. E. Church South by the Apollo Orchestra, of Washington. A large attendance is anticipated and all who may attend are assured an interesting and pleasant evening.

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

The Alexandria Athletic Club will cross bats with the Fort Hunt baseball team on the north Alfred street grounds tomorrow afternoon at 4:30. The Alexandrians have been practicing hard and the baseball fans will no doubt see one of the best contested games seen on the local sand lots this season.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY.
The following appointments in the Southern Railway will be effective May 1: Mr. W. M. Netherland, assistant to general manager, with headquarters at Washington, vice Mr. L. O. Ulrick, resigned to accept service elsewhere; Mr. J. W. Gerber, general storekeeper, with headquarters in Washington, vice Mr. W. M. Netherland, promoted.

ROSEMONT ITEMS.

The activity in Rosemont continues. Sales so far this week reported by F. L. Slaymaker, "the Rosemont man," are a fine 75 foot front lot on Rosemont avenue to Mr. R. A. Tucker and one of the handsome homes on Rosemont avenue near the electric station to Mr. Geo. W. Keys.

Plans are in the hands of several local contractors for bids for a very pretty house to be built for Mr. Thomas A. Groves, formerly of this city. The work will be rushed, and as soon as the house is completed, Mr. Groves will make his home there.

Mr. O. E. Dare is having plans prepared for the home he will erect on the fine terraced lot he purchased last week on Rosemont avenue. Mr. Slaymaker reports a number of deals pending for both houses and lots.

A GOOD SHOW.

The great Rutan and his song birds appeared before a fair-sized audience at the Surprise Theatre last night and the applause they received after each number was good evidence that all were well pleased. The singing of Mr. Rutan and his song birds is simply wonderful and must be seen to be appreciated. The two children, 4 and 6 years old, are blessed with charming voices and sing with that utter lack of self-consciousness which very seldom distinguishes the child on the vaudeville stage. They are free and unselfish and many a mother's eyes glistened as she listened to their work with Rutan. It was perfect for its simplicity unadornedness and musical purity. The same show will be given tonight and Saturday matinee and night after the regular picture show, starting at 9 o'clock.

OPERA HOUSE.

The famous Maux children scored a decided hit last night at the Opera House and easily upheld their claim of being the best child artists appearing before the public today. Their performance, consisting of songs and dances, both single and in groups, was varied and they were warmly greeted by the large audience. They will change their programme at each performance, giving a special matinee Saturday afternoon for ladies and children, will replace the black face specialty act seen last night, for the remainder of the week.

JUNIOR ORDER OF MECHANICS.

James W. Jackson Ottwell, No. 55, Jr. O. U. A. M., held an interesting meeting last night at their hall on north Pitt street. Several applications for membership were received and considerable business was transacted. The state council secretary was unable to attend, but tendered his regards to the members by letter. Addresses were delivered by many of those present which were greatly enjoyed. It was decided to invite the state councilor to visit the council of this city a fraternal visit in the near future.

COUGH ON FIRE.

A cough was discovered to be burning in a residence on the west side of Fairfax street, near Gibson, shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The cough was taken to the street before any material damage resulted to the house. The fire caused some excitement in the neighborhood for a time.

DEATHS.

Major Beverly Randolph Mason, principal of Gauntton Female Institute, of Washington, died at that institution this morning, after an illness of several weeks, aged about 70 years old. The deceased was a son of the late Dr. Richard Mason, and a brother of Rev. Richard R. Mason, of Richmond, Mr. Pickney Mason, of Rockville, Md., and Mr. J. S. Mason, of Delaplane, Fauquier county. Major Mason was born at "Oakley," Fairfax county, about six miles from this city. At the outbreak of the civil war he became a member of the Black Horse Cavalry and rose to the position of major before the close of hostilities. Shortly after the close of the conflict he was associated with William Cabell who at that time conducted a female academy in Washington. About 18 years ago Major Mason established Gauntton Female Institute in the capital city which he successfully conducted up to the time of his death. The deceased leaves a widow, formerly Miss Battle Nelson, of Albemarle county, a sister of Bishop Nelson, of Georgia, and five children—one son, Mr. Richard Mason, and four daughters. Major Mason resided in Alexandria for about two years, and was well-known to many citizens, and was a member of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans. The deceased was a man of sterling worth, and the announcement of his death will be generally regretted.

Mr. Edward Cowling, an old and highly respected citizen, died at his late residence in West End, at an early hour last night, in the 77th year of his age. He had been in failing health for the past two years, and the end was not unexpected. He is survived by six children, four sons and two daughters. He was the last surviving member of the family of the late John Cowling who came here from Cornwall, England, in the early part of the last century.

Mrs. Eliza Mully, wife of Mr. Nicholas Mully, died at her home in the court bounded by Prince, Duke, Lee and Union streets last night. She was 51 years old.

Mrs. Eliza Groves, widow of John Groves, an old and well known resident of this city, died at the Alexandria Hospital this morning, after a long illness.

KING STREET EXTENDED.

The work preliminary to paving King street actively prosecuted. The electric railway company has extended the double track eastward from Spring Park to the western limit of the city, or where the north and south bound trains pass each other at the southeast corner of Mr. B. F. Baggett's line. The granite curbing of the new work has been placed in position on the south side of the street, and trenches are being prepared for similar curbing on the north side.

PICKED UP THE WRONG HAT.

A resident of New Alexandria came to this city today on an anxious search for one of the census enumerators who had recently been executing the duties of his calling in Fairfax county. The suburban said he had no objection to giving the official all the necessary information concerning himself and his, but he entered a serious protest against giving him his capitol covering, especially when the New Alexandrian came out second best in the exchange. The enumerator, it seems, picked up the man's hat instead of his own when he left the house.

SUMMER INSTITUTE AT FREDERICKSBURG.

The State Summer Institute at Fredericksburg has just issued an interesting and attractive folder calling attention to many improvements for the work of this popular summer school during the coming season.

The conductor of the school is to be Mr. A. B. Obandler, jr., of Richmond, Va., and the local manager Mr. Arthur D. Wright, of Fredericksburg. Mr. Obandler announces that the faculty is the most expert which he has ever had for the school and that in addition he has made arrangements for cultural lectures during the sessions of the school by a number of distinguished speakers.

In brief the statements of the folder include the following items:

1st. Eighty per cent of those attending the institute last summer were successful.

2nd. The assembly hall in the splendid public school building will be used for special lectures and entertainments.

3rd. A reception to all students will be given by the faculty July 8th.

4th. Prof. J. S. Thomas, state supervisor of primary education, will give a series of lectures during the week commencing July 4th, on "Rural School Administration."

5th. The Congressional District Teachers' Association will have its meeting at the public school building July 1st and 2nd. Many prominent speakers will be present at this meeting, among them Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, jr.

6th. Miss Virginia Stone, teacher of primary methods and reading, will have a model class. This will doubtless prove of immense interest and value.

7th. An excursion to Mr. Vernon or Washington has been arranged for July 16th.

The catalogue will be from the press about May 1st and will be sent upon request.

Nelson Hubbard, son of Congressman Hubbard, republican, is to run for Congress as a democrat in the First West Virginia district.

LETTER FROM COLONIAL BEACH.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)
Colonial Beach, Va., April 20.

The season of 1910 promises to be an unusually prosperous one for Colonial Beach.

Reality has had quite a boom this spring, and many hundred dollars' worth of lots have been sold to prospective builders.

Mr. H. W. B. Williams, cashier of the Bank of Westmoreland, is completing a handsome bungalow for occupancy by himself and family.

Mr. George Stafford, agent of the Chesapeake and Potomac Navigation Company, is also building a family residence in the same section.

The foundation of the new Episcopal Church, St. Mary's, is growing rapidly. The cornerstone will be laid on the 25th of May by the Colonial Beach Lodge of Masons.

A beautiful lot near the Beach Hotel property has been purchased for the erection of a handsome Masonic temple.

The steamer S. Johns, which rendered such fine service between Washington, Alexandria, Norfolk and the Beach all winter, has been withdrawn, pending the establishment of a more complete service, when all the boats of the Washington and Norfolk line will make daily stops for passengers and freight.

The freight wharf will be extended about 100 feet in order to render the landing of such large steamers possible. This, with the direct line to Baltimore, via Pope's Creek, bridge us within very close touch with the markets of those large cities.

Many cottage owners, who reside in Washington during the winter, are daily arriving to look after their properties here, while some have already located.

Houses are being rapidly rented, and by the first of May there will not be a vacant house in all probability.

The fishing season is at its height, and fish and oysters are plentiful and cheap.

Thomas Lomax Hunter and George Ogilvie Taylor, of King George, have located here. They are temporarily at the town hall, but are about to erect a handsome law office, corner of Main street and Banco's avenue.

The curative properties of the artesian water here in rheumatism and malaria, and the salt and piney air for throat and lung troubles have been well tested and, as a result, many cures have been effected, causing some to locate here permanently.

News of the Day.

No reigning sovereign ever received a more enthusiastic welcome in Paris than did Theodore Roosevelt, the former president of the United States, yesterday.

Phillip von Berger Kluepfel, teacher of German at Central High School, Washington, who was run down by an Eleventh street car yesterday morning, died in the afternoon without regaining consciousness.

A portion of the mountainside has slipped near Manresa, thirty miles from Barcelona, Spain, destroying the convent of San Pablo. A number of nuns were buried in the ruins. Three corpses have been recovered and nine of the nuns have been rescued. They are suffering from serious injuries.

Theodore Roosevelt is likely to be elected a member of the Harvard board of overseers.

Prompt relief in all cases of throat and lung trouble if you use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pleasant to take, soothing and healing in effect. Sold by W. F. Orelight & Co., and Richard Gibson.

FLAVOR IN Hofbrau Beer

Appeals to all who have tried it and accustoms for the constantly increasing demand for this excellent product.

It is a flavor that is distinctive and is produced by the use of the choicest of barley malt and selected Bohemian hops, skillfully blended. There is a fragrance and a "tang" to our beer that marks the work of the skilled brewmaster.

In every process of brewing we carry constantly in mind the fact that purity is the first essential, and every ounce of our beer is aged to ask for the right reason.

Just for the right reason, on having Hofbrau Beer.
